(1) On receiving such cover the Registrar if satisfied that the person presenting the same for deposit is the testator or his agent shall transcribe in his Register - Book No. 5 the superscription aforesaid and shall note in the same book and on the said cover the year month day and hour of such presentation and receipt and the names of any persons who may testify to the identity of the testator or his agent, and any legible inscription which may be on the seal of the cover.

(2) The Registrar shall then place and retain the sealed cover in his fireproof box.

44. Withdrawal of sealed cover deposited under section 42:- If the testator who has deposited such cover wishes to withdraw it, he may apply, either personally or by duly authorised agent, to the Registrar who holds it in deposit, and such Registrar if satisfied that the applicant is actually the testator or his agent, shall deliver the cover accordingly.

45. Proceeding on death of depositor:-

(1) If, on the death of a testator who has deposited a sealed cover under section 42, application be made to the Registrar who holds it in deposit to open the same, and if the Registrar is satisfied that the testator is dead, he shall, in the applicant's presence, open the cover, and, at the applicant's expense, cause the contents thereof to be copied into his Book No. 3.

(2) When such copy has been made, the Registrar shall re-deposit the original will.

46. Saving of certain enactments and powers of Courts:-

(1) Nothing hereinbefore contained shall affect the provisions of Section 259 of the Indian Succession Act, 1865 (X of 1865) or of section 81 of the Probate and Administration Act, 1881 (V of 1881), or the power of any court by order to compel the production of any will.

(2) When any such order is made, the Registrar shall, unless the will has been already copied under section 45, open the cover and cause the will to be copied into his Book No. 3 and make a note on such copy that the original has been removed into Court in pursuance of the order aforesaid.

PART X
OF THE EFFECTS OF REGISTRATION AND NON-REGISTRATION
47. Time from which registered document operates:- A registered document shall operate from time from which it would have commenced to operate if no registration thereof has been required or made, and not from the time of its registration.

48. Registered document relating to property when to take effect against oral agreements:- All non-testamentary documents duly registered under this Act and relating to any property, whether movable or immovable shall take effect against any oral agreement or declaration relating to such property, unless where the agreement or declaration has been accompanied or followed by delivery of possession and the same constitutes a valid transfer under any law for the time being in force:

Provided that a mortgage by deposit of title-deeds as defined in section 58 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (IV of 1882) shall take effect against any mortgage-deed subsequently executed and registered which relates to the same property.

49. Effect of non-registration of documents required to be registered:- No document required by section 172 or by any provision of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (IV of 1882) to be registered shall -

(a) affect any immovable property comprised therein, or
(b) confer any power to adopt, or
(c) be received as evidence of any transaction affecting such property or conferring such power, unless it has been registered;

Provided that an unregistered document affecting immovable property and required by this Act or the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (IV of 1882) to be registered may be received as evidence of a contract in a suit for specific performance under Chapter II of the Specific Relief Act, 1887 (I of 1887), or as evidence of any collateral transaction not required to be effected by a registered instrument.

50. Certain registered documents relating to land to take effect against unregistered documents:-

(1) Every document of the kinds mentioned in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 17, subsection (1) and clauses (a) and (b) of section 18, shall, if duly registered, take effect as regards the property comprised therein, against every unregistered document relating to the same property, and not being a decree or order, whether such unregistered document be of the same nature as the registered document or not.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) applies to leases exempted under the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 17 or to any document mentioned in subsection (2) of the same section or to any registered document which had not priority under the law in force at the commencement of this Act.

Explanation:- In cases where Act No. XVI of 1864 or the Indian Registration Act, 1866 (XX of 1866b), was in force in the place and at the time in and at which such unregistered document was executed" unregistered " means not registered according to such Act, and, where the document is executed after the first day of July 1871, not registered under the Indian Registration Act, 1871. (VIII of 1871), or the Indian Registration Act, 1877 (III of 1877), or this Act.

PART XI-A

OF THE COPYING OF DOCUMENTS BY MEANS OF PHOTOGRAPHY

70-A. Application of this Part:- This Part shall apply to the areas only in respect of which a notification is issued by the (State) Government] under section 70C.

70-B. Definitions - In this part:-

(1) "Government Photo Registry " means the office where documents are photographed under the provision of this Part.

(3) "Photo Registrar" means any person appointed by the (State) Government to perform the duties of Photo Registrar under this part].

70-C. Documents may be photographed in areas notified by (State) Government] :-

(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that in any district or sub - district specified in the notification copies of documents admitted to registration under this Act shall be made by means of photography.

(2) On the issue of such notification it shall be translated into the vernacular of the district and shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the Registration offices affected by the notification.
70-D. Application of Act to areas notified under section 70-C:- In any district or sub-district in respect of which a notification has been issued under section 70-C the provisions of this Act shall, for the purposes of this Part, be subject to the following modifications, namely:

(1) (a) Every document admitted to registration under section 35 or section 41 shall be carefully marked with an identification stamp and the serial number of the document on every page.

(b) It shall then be transmitted by the registering officer to the Manager, Government Photo Registry, who shall cause, each side of each page of such document together with all stamps endorsements, seals, signatures, thumb-impressions and certificates, appearing thereon to be photographed without subtraction or alteration. He may for this purpose cut or untie, without breaking any seals, the thread or ribbon wherewith the pages of the documents are sewn together in order to separate the pages of the documents, and, as soon as the document has been photographed, he shall rebind the document as before and if he has cut the thread or ribbon shall seal it over the joint with his seal:

Provided that before transmission of the document to the Manager, Government Photo Registry the party presenting the document may require the registering officer to have it copied by hand under section 52 on payment of an additional copying fee.

(c) There shall then be prepared and preserved the negative and at least one photographic print and to each such negative and print the Photo-Registrar shall fix his signature and seal in token of the exact correspondence of the copy to the original document, as admitted for registration:

Provided that when more than one such negative is recorded on one length of film and the Photo-Registrar has affixed his signature and seal at the end of such length of film certifying in the manner prescribed by rules made in this behalf, the exact correspondence of all, copies on such length of film with the original documents, the Photo-Registrar shall be deemed to have affixed his signature and seal to each such negative on such length of film.

Provided further that in case of documents containing plans or maps the negatives of such plans and maps may be prepared on paper instead of on films and where the negatives are so prepared, the Photo Registrar shall fix his signature and seal separately to each such negative and print of such plan or map in token of the exact correspondence of the copy to the original map or plan contained in the document as admitted for registration.

(d) One set of such prints arranged in the order of their serial number shall be made up into books and sewn or bound together. To each such book the Registrar or Sub-Registrar shall affix a certificate of the serial numbers it contains, and the book shall then be preserved in the records of the Sub-Registrar. The negatives shall be preserved in such suitable place as the Inspector-General may prescribe:

Provided that prints of plans or maps contained in documents may either be bound with the prints of such documents or filed separately in such manner as the Inspector-General may direct.

(2) All words and expression used in the Act with reference to the making of copies of documents by hand or the entering or filing of documents or memorandum in books provided under section 16 shall, so far as may be necessary, be construed as referring to the making of such copies by means of photography or the entering or filing of documents or memoranda in books made up of copies prepared by means of photography.

(f) sub-section (1) of section 61 shall be omitted;

(g) in sub – section (1) of section 62.

(i) for the word 'transcribed' the word 'copied' shall be substituted; and

(ii) for the words and figures ‘copy referred to in section 19’ the words 'photograph of the original' shall be substituted.

70. E Savings:-

(1) Nothing in this part shall apply to any document , which is prepared on a printed or lithographed form or which in the opinion of the registering officer is not in a fit condition to be photographed.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part, in the case of any document containing a map, plan, or trademark label, if the party presenting the document so desires, the registering officer may accept true copies of such map, plan, or trademark label and where such true copies are accepted, the map, plan or trademark label shall not be photographed and such copies thereof shall be filed in the appropriate book.

PART XII

OF REFUSAL TO REGISTER

71. Reasons for refusal to register to be recorded:-

(1) Every Sub - Registrar refusing to register a document, except on the ground that the property to which it relates is not situate within his sub - district, shall make an order of refusal and record his reasons for such order in his book No. 2, and endorse the words "registration refused" on the document; and, on application made by any person executing or claiming under the document, shall, without payment and unnecessary delay, give him a copy of the reasons so recorded.

(2) No registering officer shall accept for registration a document so endorsed unless and until, under the provisions hereinafter contained, the document is directed to be registered.

72. Appeal to Registrar from orders of Sub-Registrar refusing registration on ground other than denial of execution:-

(1) Except where the refusal is made on the ground of denial of execution, and appeal shall lie against an order of a Sub - Registrar refusing to admit a document to registration (whether the registration of such document is compulsory or optional) to the Registrar to whom such Sub – Registrar is subordinate, if presented to such Registrar within thirty days from the date of the order; and the Registrar may reverse or alter such order.

(2) If the order of the Registrar directs the document to be registered and the document is duly presented for registration within thirty days after the making of such order, the Sub-Registrar shall obey the same, and thereupon shall, so far as may be practicable, follow the procedure prescribed in section 58, 59 and 60; and such registration shall take effect as if the document had been registered when it was first duly presented for registration.
73. Application to Registrar where Sub-Registrar refuses to register on ground of denial of execution:-

(1) When a Sub-Registrar has refused to register a document on the ground that any person by whom it purports to be executed, or his representative or assign, denies its execution, any person claiming under such document, or his representative, assign or agent authorised as aforesaid, may, within thirty days after the making of the order of refusal, apply to the Registrar to whom such Sub-Registrar is subordinate in order to establish his right to have the document registered.

(2) Such application shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by a copy of the reasons recorded under section 71, and the statements in the application shall be verified by the applicant in manner required by law for the verification of plaints.

74. Procedure of Registrar on such application:- An such case, and also where such denial as aforesaid is made before a Registrar in respect of a document presented for registration to him, the Registrar shall, as soon as convenient may enquire:

(a) whether the document has been executed;

(b) whether the requirements of the law for the time being in force have been complied with on the part of the applicant or person presenting the document for registration, as the case may be, so as to entitle the document to registration.

75. Order by Registrar to register and procedure thereon:-

(1) If the Registrar finds that the document has been executed and that the said requirements have been complied with, he shall order the document to be registered.

(2) If the document is duly presented for registration within thirty days after the making of such order, the registering officer shall obey the same and thereupon shall, so far as may be practicable, follow the procedure prescribed in section 58, 59 and 60.

(3) Such registration shall take effect as if the document had been registered when it was first duly presented for registration.

(4) The Registrar may, for the purpose of any enquiry under section 74, summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and compel them to give evidence, as if he were a Civil Court, and he may also direct by whom the whole or any part of the costs of any such enquiry shall be paid, and such costs shall be recoverable as if they had been awarded in a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908)

76. Order of refusal by Registrar:-

(1) Every Registrar refusing - (a) to register a document except on the ground that the property to which it relates is not situate within his district or that the document ought to be registered in the office of a Sub-Registrar, or

(b) to direct the registration of a document under section 72 or section 75 shall make an order of refusal and record the reasons for such order in his Book No. 2, and on application made by any person executing or claiming under the document, shall, without unnecessary delay, give him a copy of the reasons so recorded.

(2) No appeal lies from any order by a Registrar under this section or section 72.

77. Suit in case of order on refusal by Registrar:-
(1) Where the Registrar refuses to order the document to be registered, under section 72 or section 76, any person claiming under such document, or his representative, assign or agent, may, within thirty days after the making of the order of refusal, institute in the Civil Court, within the local limits of whose original jurisdiction is situate the office in which the document is sought to be registered, a suit for a decree directing the document to be registered in such office if it be duly presented for registration within thirty days after the passing of such decree.

(2) The provisions contained in sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 75 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to all documents presented for registration in accordance with any such decree, and, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the document shall be receivable in evidence in such suit.

PART XIII
OF THE FEES FOR REGISTRATION, SEARCHES AND COPIES

78. Fees to be fixed by State Government:- The State Government shall prepare a table of fees payable

(a) for the registration of documents;

(b) for searching the registers;

(c) for making or granting copies of reasons, entries or documents, before, on or after registration; of extra or additional fees payable

(d) for every registration under section 30;

(e) for the issue of commissions;

(f) for filling translation;

(g) for attending at private residences;

(h) for the safe custody and return of documents; and

(i) for such other matters as appear to the State Government necessary to effect the purposes of this Act.

79. Publication of fees:- A table of the fees so payable shall be published in the Official Gazette, and a copy thereof in English and the vernacular language of the district shall be exposed to public view in every Registration office.

80. Fees payable on presentation:-

All fees for the registration of documents under this Act shall be payable on the presentation of such documents.

80-A. Recovery of excess registration fee as arrear of land revenue and provision for refund:-

(1) If on inspection or otherwise it is found that any fee payable under this Act has not been paid or has been paid insufficiently, such fee may (after failure to pay the same on demand within the period specified therein), on a certificate of the Inspector-General of Registration, be recovered as an arrear of land revenue from the person from whom such demand is made.
