About Online Notice:

Marriage Types:

1. Special Marriage: The parties intending to solemnize marriage under Special Marriage Act.

2. Form 16 Marriage: The parties (already married) intending to register marriage under Special Marriage Act.

The parties intending to solemnize marriage under Special Marriage Act have to furnish notice to the concerned Marriage Officer before 30 days of the intended marriage. Or, The parties (already married) intending to register their marriage under Special Marriage Act have to furnish application to the concerned Marriage Officer, residing within the district of the Marriage Officer for a period of not less than thirty days immediately preceding the date on which the application is made for the said marriage.

The application: <https://mregigr.maharashtra.gov.in/autonoticepublic> provides facility to such parties to submit the notice/application and documents without physically visiting the concerned marriage office. This facility is limited for submission of the notice/application. The marriage will be solemnized/registered before the Marriage Officer.

This facility can be availed only if the bride/wife & groom/husband have Aadhaar number and ready to give their consent for verification of their identity with the Aadhaar system (UIDA).
